ALMA MATER

Where the hills of old Muskingum
Greet the eastern sky,
Stands our dear old Alma Mater
Throned in majesty.

From her walls still echo footsteps
of the great in fame,
All who tread thy halls so stately,
Ever love thy name.

Chorus:

Sing her praises, never ceasing
We shall ever cry
Thee we honor, Alma Mater
Honor Philo High

DEDICATION

E. G. THOMPSON

Four years ago our graduating class entered high school. At the same time our school engaged a new principal.

We feel that the best way to show our appreciation is to dedicate our yearbook to him. We have found Mr. Thompson very capable both as a principal and a mathematics teacher.

In these four years most of us have gotten to know him quite well and have learned that a teacher can be a friend as well as a teacher.

The Senior Class of 1957 do hereby dedicate the 21st volume of The Current to Mr. Thompson.

ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

This is Mr. Ralph E. Brown's tenth year at Philo High as superintendent. We thank him for his services to the school.

After graduating from New Concord High School, Mr. Brown, received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Muskingum college and Master of Arts degree from Ohio State University. He attended several summer sessions at the Harvard University, University of Illinois and Michigan University.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and their son Robert live in Duncan Falls. Their daughter Carol, is now married to Emerson Payne.

—Kay Bernard

MR. THOMPSON

PRINCIPAL

Mr. E. G. Thompson has now been principal of Philo for four years. He also teaches high school mathematics.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree from Muskingum College after graduating from Madison High School.

He taught physics and math one year at Muskingum college, math six years at Belpre, Ohio, and was Executive School Head at Cumberland.

He spent nearly two years as a Process Engineer at Oak Ridge Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and their three daughters and son live at Route 1 near New Concord, Ohio.

—Kay Bernard

MISS MITCHELL

SECRETARY

Miss Lydia Mitchell has been the efficient and capable secretary at Philo High School since her graduation.

She does typing, mimeographing, supervising student secretaries and helping Mr. Brown and Mr. Thompson.

Miss Mitchell makes her home in Duncan Falls.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

DICKSON, HOLSKEY, BOETCHER, HILL, SERIGHT, SEYERLE

The members of the Board of Education for the year of 1956-1957 are the same as last year. They are as follows:

Mr. Paul Seright.....	President
Mr. Elton Dickson.....	Vice-President
Mr. Herman Seyerle.....	Clerk
Mr. Russell Holskey, Mr. Virgil Boetcher, and Mrs. Ola Hill

—Kay Bernard

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT

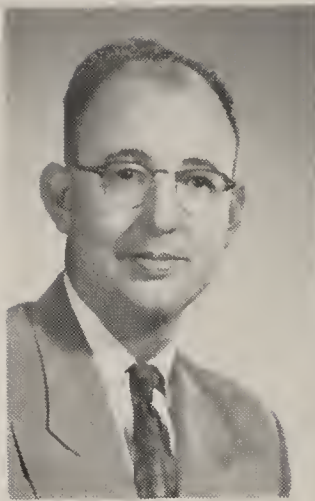

Mr. Asa O. Tom has been County Superintendent in Muskingum county for seven years. We are grateful for his interest in our school.

Mr. Tom attended high school in Rich Hill Township, then attended Ohio State university and Muskingum college.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom live in Zanesville.

CLASS HISTORY

Of all the pupils of High School the Seniors are the oldest and the wisest. On this account they are an important and powerful group and exert an uplifting influence over all high school. They are patrons of debate, the drama, oratory, student government, school reform, and games of strength and agility. Beyond the session room of the Seniors glitters the Mare Vitae, toward which their eyes are often turned.

On September 6, 1953, seventy-five happy, but curious faces entered Philo High School. We were welcomed by the high and mighty seniors with plenty of lipstick.

Martha Sherburn and Bob Hunter were elected class presidents.

Jean Kramer was chosen reserve cheerleader.

Our Freshman attendant was Martha Sherburn.

After our long year of battle and victory we became sophomores. Laura Humphrey, Marilyn Cook, and Martha Moore joined us with Melvin Green, Dixie Frame, Steven Frame, Diana Wagner, John Ribble, Richard Martin, Jerry Hartman, and Nancy Crock not returning, leaving a total of sixty-six in our class. This year was not as unusual as the previous year.

Bob Hunter and Nancy Stiles were elected presidents in their respective rooms.

Hope Perkins was our Homecoming attendant.

Jean Kramer was again chosen Reserve cheerleader.

We were represented by Don Good, Don Sheppard, Joe Staley, Gary Smith, Charles Baker, Don Walker, Don Benadum, David Shipps, Ronnie Thomas, Jerry Foster, and Bob Janusz on the reserve football team.

The following boys were on the reserve basketball team: Don Benadum, Gary Smith, George Trainer, Charles Baker, and Don Sheppard. We were represented in the band by eleven members.

Don Good, Don Benadum, Edith Thomas, Clara Barker, Don Sheppard, John Paul, Mickey Drake,

Clarence Dean, Gayle McCutcheon, Emma Rutter, Mary Rutter, Mrs. Baker, and Martha Moore left us our Junior year while Pat Clever joined us at mid term.

Bob Hunter served again as president.

Our class rings arrived in September.

Hope Perkins and Jean Kramer were our cheerleaders.

On March 2, we presented our class play "A Dance with Miss Brooks", with much success.

Our Junior-Senior Banquet held in May at the school, followed by the Prom, was enjoyed by all.

Our Senior year started much the same as the others, but we soon found out that it was quite different; this time we used the lipstick.

Norma Brewer, Shelba Confer, and Marilyn Cook did not return leaving us a total of fifty.

For the fourth straight year Bob Hunter was elected president.

We presented our Senior Class Play "Father Knows Best" on November 16 with added success.

We were represented on the Varsity Football team by Orville Fisher, Jerry Foster, Don Walker, Ronnie Thomas, Bob Janusz, David Shipps, Charles Baker, Gary Smith, and Joe Staley.

David Sawyers, Ronnie Thomas, George Trainer, and John Baker represented us on the varsity basketball team.

Jean Kramer was chosen by the student body to be our Homecoming Queen, with Nancy Finkel and Sandra Israel as the Senior attendants. The Homecoming Dance followed the game.

On December 11, the senior class was saddened by the death of Ronnie Thomas who was killed in an automobile accident.

Our Valentine Dance was held February 9 at the Duncan Falls gymnasium with the Tempo Kings providing the music.

And thus the year of 1957 ends our four year stay at Philo High School. We are sorry to leave but realize that we have a great task before us.

IN MEMORIAM

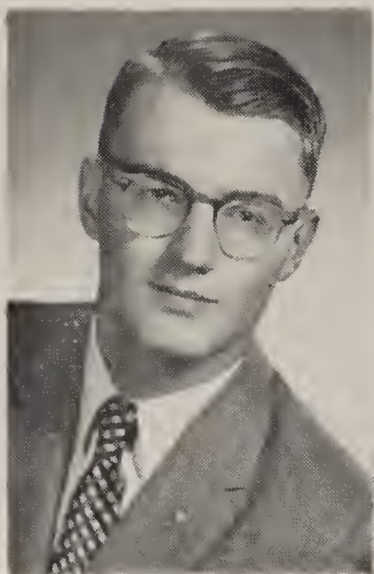

RONNIE THOMAS

In memory of Ronald Gene Thomas who was an outstanding and well liked member of this graduating class of 1957. We were saddened by his sudden death on December 11, 1956.

Ronnie's good sportsmanship, pleasant personality, and his ability to get along with others will long be remembered by the pupils of Philo High. His friendly smile will remain always in the hearts of his friends.

SENIOR DAYS

In our robes we're finely dressed,
Just as memories in our minds are pressed.
We laughed and whispered within these walls,
And heard the echoes down the halls.
Football and basketball were added thrills,
We never worried of human ills.
Just one big happy family then,
Until death came and took a friend.
Wiser and stronger now, we leave,
It took suffering, but we can't grieve.
So this our farewell parting be,
"You were made a part of me"

CLASS WILL

The Senior Class of 1957 of Philo High School, City of Philo State of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory do hereby draw up this will as being our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills, heretofore made by us.

I, Chuck Baker, will my ability for getting along with Mrs. Sharp to Mike Worley. I hope you can see through her and her literature better than I could Mike.

I, John Baker, will Mr. Betz a wig, now maybe the flies won't be using his bald head for a landing field.

I, Clara Ann Barbour, will Miss Politis a taxi meter for her Cadillac since she runs a taxi route from Philo to Zanesville anyway.

I, Robert Beish, will some of Mr. Thompson's ability to be "fair and square" with students to other teachers here.

I, Pat Clever, will Anne Mae Deitrick my seat in solid geometry so Mr. Thompson won't have an all boy class next year either.

I, Jean Collins, will Harold Gordon a bottle of wave set, now he won't have to stand in front of a mirror for an hour combing his hair trying to get a perfect wave.

I, Dorothy Drake, will to Wanda Wostall, all my love for the name of Moore.

I, Marjorie Enochs, will my seat in speech class to anyone who likes to make speeches, I didn't

I, Nancy Finkel, will Margaret Ann Dilley a guitar and a hound dog. Now maybe she can imitate Elvis Presley.

I, Orville Fisher, will Phillip Dalton and Dick Swetnam, my pay check for a year. Now buy your own eats after football practice.

I, Jerry Foster, will to Mr. Dilley the school house since he is going to blow it up anyway.

I, Shirley Gillogly, will Miss Politis my ability to speak up. Then maybe she can be heard in the back of the room.

I, Sandra Hamilton, will Larry McCutcheon, Jim Corder, and Harold Gordon, a Mercury; I hate to see you ride those bikes when its cold.

I, Celesta Hamilton, will my ability to help in the kitchen to anyone who likes to get out of study hall.

I, Laura Humphrey, will Dave Mason a suit of armor. Now you won't miss out on any sports this year, Dave.

I, Bob Hunter, will to my brother Curtis, my ability to get out of classes and homework.

I, Sandra Israel, will the Juniors the will to will a will that will pass.

I, Bob Janusz, will Mr. Dilley two new cars since Dana is going to tear the old ones up anyway.

I, Paul Kelso, will Tom Newson to Evelyn Jones. Please get married.

I, Jean Kramer, will Sis Hatfield a new heart to replace the one she wore out on Mr. LaBonte.

I, Nancy Linscott, will the faculty my darling brother, brace yourselves.

I, Bill Longshore, will Charles Myers two cylinders for his John Deere tractor. Now it will run on all four.

I, Diana Merriam, will Carolyn Kirkbride and Butch Morrison a private wastepaper basket. Now there won't be such an uproar in speech class.

I, Larry Morgan, will Jane Garrett all my love for a good time. Use it well. I did!

I, Bonnie Miller, will my ability to stop on skates to Jim Noland. Now maybe you won't hit the wall.

I, Martha Miller, will Marie Allison my first chair in band, hope you enjoy it as much as I did.

Page Sixteen

I, Hope Perkins, will to my sister Sara, any of the freshman boys. Just teasing Sis. I know it's David you'll pick.

I, Evelyn Price, will my "I like Elvis" button to anyone who likes sideburns as well as I do.

I, JoAnn Rittberger, will my brother Bob my ability to stay up late hours and still look civilized the next day.

I, Ruth Roberts, will Mr. LaBonte a new suit with complete built in muscles.

I, Richard Robinson, will my brother Bob, my ability to play a horn in the Philo Band.

I, Dave Sawyers, will my position on the basketball team of chief bench warmer to Dick Dodd. Now he'll really have something to brag about.

I, Martha Sherburn, will my complexion to Miss Mitchell so that she won't have to wear so much rouge.

I, Dave Shipps, will to you, Dave Mason, my draft card so you won't have to lie about your age. "Don't get hazy, Dave."

I, Kathryn Shook, will Miss Forbes some 3 in 1 oil so she can fix some of those squeaks.

I, Gary Smith, will to any Junior, who intends to be in the Senior class play, a dozen flips on the couch. It will cost you $2.40!

I, Joe Staley, would will a will if I had a will but I don't.

I, Nancy Stiles, will Mary Shipps the ability to keep her mind on her work instead of on the Senior boy in fifth period study hall.

I, Richard Stiles, will Philo High School a clock. Now I hope they will put it in the restroom.

I, Ruth Stone, will my love for the name of "Bill" to Wanda Worstall. Keep trying.

I, Marilyn Swingle, will Miss Milligan a piece of angel food cake. Now maybe you won't get so hungry before lunch.

I, Freda Taylor, will Mr. Lloyd, a new math class. Now maybe he can give some A's.

I, Shelby Taylor, will Mr. Hatfield an automatic washer and dryer. Now the Home Ec. girls won't have to wash the players' uniforms.

I, Linda Tinkham, will Carolyn Bass a new seat in the 7th period study hall. Now maybe she won't have to strain her neck to see if a certain senior boy is looking at her.

I, George Trainer, will Mr. Lloyd an automatic hair brush installed in his car. Now maybe he can get his hair combed before he gets to school in the mornings.

I, Bill Trimble, will Pat Kennedy a wide-gage track for her box car. Don't jump the track, Pat. It's dangerous.

I, Shirley Wietzel, will Jim Longshore the remaining articles which I purchased from him to help the Latin Club. "And don't forget to change the name on the stationery."

I, Lydia Wilson, will my misinformation to anyone who likes to speak up in class.

I, Nancy Wilson, will Mary Lou Wolfe my quietness. Now maybe the girls who eat in the art room won't have to listen to her.

We, the Senior Class of 1957, will to Mr. Betz our sincere appreciation and gratitude for all the untiring effort and help he has given to us.

This will having been read and approved is hereby declared legal and any beneficiaries who try to revoke or dispute any will is hereby declared deprived of all rights and privileges.

FATHER KNOWS BEST

On November 16, 1956, the Senior Speech class of Philo High School presented "Father Knows Best", a three act comedy about the more light-hearted aspects of family life. It is from the radio program and the television play.

High points of the play: Betty has trouble with Father over her boy friend Ralph, who asked her to go dancing but Father says that no one was leaving the house. Betty goes against Father's word and takes her suit case with her formal in it, so she can change at a restaurant, and goes to the dance with Ralph, taking Father's car. Kathy, sees them leaving and tells Father. Father thinks the two are eloping and has the police out looking for them. Everything turns out to make an interesting and delightful play.

The members of the cast as they appeared were:

Jim Anderson, father.....	Bob Hunter
Margaret Anderson, mother.....	Hope Perkins
Betty, their older daughter.....	Jo Ann Rittberger
Kathy, their younger daughter.....	Shirley Wietzel

A DANCE WITH OUR MISS BROOKS

On March 23, 1956, the junior class of Philo High School presented in the school auditorium, the three-act comedy, "A Dance With Our Miss Brooks."

The story: When Miss Brooks (Sandra Hamilton) puts her mind on going to the school dance with the athletic coach (Gary Smith), and also hopes to wheedle a corsage out of him, things become complicated.

The ladies from the Taxpayers Association show up and find that the money is being wasted on educational fal-las.

The night of the dance everything goes hay-wire. The coach twists his ankle, the Principal, (Bob Hunter) falls headfirst through the paper moon. In despair, Miss Brooks writes out her resignation, but, in a wonderful finale, the students prove that they really learned resourcefulness and responsibility. The dance is back within its budget and Miss Brooks is happy.

Other characters in the play: Miss Marlowe, the home economics teacher, Jo Ann Rittberger; Miss Audubon, the music teacher, Hope Perkins.

SECOND ROW: Shipps, G. Smith, Cassady, Fisher, Staley, Adams, Foster, Rittberger, C. Smith.
SITTING: Mason, Thomas, Morrison, Baker, Boetcher, Reese, Heston, McHenry.

The Philo High School Football team ended its season with a record of four wins and five losses. Inexperience and injuries were largely responsible for this.

However Mr. Hatfield will have a good number of returning lettermen with which to build next years team. Those Seniors who have played their last game are: Dave Shipps, Gary Smith, Joe Staley, Ronnie Thomas, Bob Janusz, Chuck Baker, Orville Fisher, Don Walker, and Jerry Foster.

Our team was honored by having Don Walker named to the All MVL second team; while Charles Baker, Roger McHenry, and Bob Janusz all received honorable mention.

Our team is very fortunate in that we have two of the best coaches in the league, Mr. Hatfield, Mr. LaBonte. The boys of the team wish to express their thanks and wish them the best of luck in the next season.

HOMECOMING

October 19, 1956 was selected as the night of our Homecoming. Miss Jean Kramer was elected Queen to reign over the Philo-Caldwell game.

Her attendents were:

Seniors.....Miss Nancy Finkel and Miss Sandra Israel
Junior Miss Janet Wolfe
FreshmanMiss Cynthia Hatfield

Miss Kramer arrived in a Lincoln convertible. She wore a light blue suit with black and white accessories. The two Senior attendents rode in a Cadillac convertible. Miss Finkel wore a green tweed suit with black and white accessories, Miss Israel wore a black and white suit with white accessories. Miss Wolfe's car was a Ford Thunderbird. She wore a brown suit with rust accessories. Our Freshman and Sophomore attendants rode in a Chevrolet convertible. Miss Sherburn wore a light blue suit with black accessories and Miss Hatfield wore a brown suit with turquoise and brown accessories.

The escorts were Ronnie Thomas, Jerry Foster, Allen Brown from Caldwell, Don Walker, Orville Fisher and Bob Janusz.

Miss Kramer was crowned by Co-Captain Ronnie Thomas. She was presented flowers by Co-Captain Allen Brown, from Caldwell. In return the Queen presented them with a football.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

KNEELING: Dilley, Trainer, Robinson, J. Baker, Swetnam, Mason.

STANDING: Boetcher, Harper, Hamler, Sawyers, Bronkar, Elliot,
Kennedy, Blake.

The Philo High School Electrics Varsity Basketball team did not have a very successful season winning only three of nineteen games. Several factors contributed to this, namely, inexperience, an unfortunate accident, and lack of desire to play.

However, next season's outlook is better in that only three members will be lost by graduation. These are: George Trainer, David Sawyers, and John Baker. Another interesting outlook is the possibility that we will go into class AA competition next year.

We were happy to have Mr. La Bonte as our coach, and we hope that he has more success in the future.

—John Baker

RESERVE BASKETBALL

KNEELING: Morrison, Sheridan, Rittberger, Heston, Moore.

STANDING: Mr. Dutro, Sherburn, Baker, Krier, Hatfield, Hivnor, Seyerle, Neville.

The reserve basketball team of 1956-57 also had a very disappointing season, ending the season with five wins and thirteen losses.

The team was composed of two juniors, Roger Hatfield and Daniel Neville; four sophomores, Jim Krier, Bryce Morrison, Bob Rittberger, and Alan Heston; six freshmen, Gene Baker, Eddie Moore, Larry Sherburn, Larry Sheridan,, Harvey Hivnor, and Rickey Janusz.

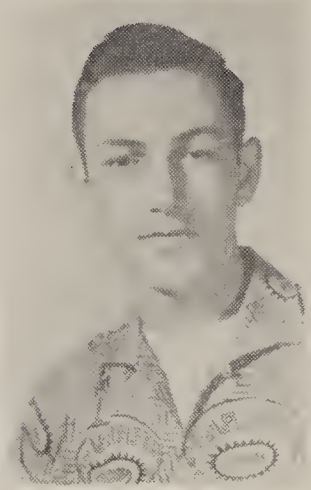

The boys of the team wish to thank Mr. Dutro for his usual excellent coaching and the managers.

Four years of English are taught at Philo High School, three years required; under the direction of Miss Edna M. Forbes, Mrs. Byrdie Sharp and Miss Faye Powelson.

Senior English, taught by Miss Forbes, consists of reading the classics and writing compositions and themes. This course is very helpful as an introduction to general college work.

Junior English, under the supervision of Mrs. Sharp, includes grammar, literature, poetry (both classical and contemporary), and spelling-vocabulary combined. During the year "Hamlet" was read which made one of the four required book reports.

Sophomore English Classes taught by Miss Forbes have studied grammar and read Silas Marner, Julius Caesar, short stories, and poetry. From two to six book reports are required, one being oral.

Freshman English classes taught by Miss Powelson concentrate on grammar, literature including Great Expectations, short stories and poetry. Four book reports are required one oral and Great Expectations.

The science department, under the capable direction of Mr. Dilley and Mr. LaBonte, consists of four courses.

General Science, which is taught by Mr. LaBonte is a required course for ninety three freshmen. It deals with general information about practically all fields of science.

Mr. Dilley teaches Biology, Physics, Senior Science and Chemistry. Physics and Chemistry are given on alternate years.

The Biology department consists of twenty nine pupils, who are learning about the human body, the bodies of animals, and the structures of plants.

The Physics department is made up of thirty five juniors and seniors, who are studying about the laws governing matter, electricity, sound, machines, and many other interesting things.

Senior Science, which is being studied by nineteen juniors and seniors, has to do with more advanced generalized study of science.

The Language Department consists of Latin, French, Speech under the direction of Mrs. Sharp and Miss Forbes.

LATIN: The Latin I and Latin II classes consisting of 35 pupils are under the supervision of Mrs. Sharp. The Latin I class learns the fundamentals of the Latin language, while the Latin II students read Julius Caesar.

FRENCH: Miss Forbes instructs the 15 members of the French I class. The French Club was formed earlier in the year and officers were elected as follows:

President Judy Brannon
Vice President Lydia Wilson

Secretary Hope Perkins
Treasurer Marilyn Swingle

The French Club meetings are held the first and third Friday of each month. These meetings provide education and entertainment.

French Club pins were received in January.

SPEECH: Miss Forbes also has charge of the Speech department. This course is given to seniors only, for improvement of voice, vocabulary, and action before the group.

The Senior Class play was presented by the members of the Speech Class.

Wood shop is under the direction of Mr. Fulwider. There are 70 students taking this course.

First year consists of one period of elementary wood work, and one period is spent in mechanical drawing, to learn to plan the work. 38 Freshmen compose this class.

The second and third year more advance work comes in such as making coffee tables, chairs, cabinets etc. The work usually has to be worked out on paper before building it, thus utilizing the first year training. There are 32 Sophomore and Juniors taking this. This course has proved to be very advantageous to those students entering the Industrial Arts field.

The Home Economics department is under the direction of Miss Dorothy Milligan. Some of the girls have been working on various kinds of needle work including, embroidery, knitting, and crocheting.

Before the Christmas vacation the girls had a party in the Home Ec. room. Everyone taking Home Ec. made candy, cakes, or cookies. There was a gift exchange and some dancing.

We have a Home Economics club to which all girls taking Home Ec. belong. The officers elected are as follows:

President	_____	Shelby Fisher
Secretary	_____	Donna Cornell
Treasurer	_____	Carolyn Kirkbride
Chairman of Committee—		Margaret Chorjel

Each of the girls taking Home Economics is required to serve in the cafeteria once every six weeks.

There are two classes in Mech. Dr.

Mech. Dr. class I teaches the fundamental phases of drafting such as the proper use of instruments, geometrical problems, orthographic projection, dimensioning, and sectioning.

Some inking also comes in the course.

Class II deals with the more advanced phases such as detailing, tracing and blue printing.

Architectural and pictorial drawing are taught during the latter part of the second semester.

This is a fundamental course in engineering and gives a student a good knowledge of blue print reading.

The Mech Drawing course is taught by Mr. Hatfield.

The purpose of Drivers' Education is:

To equip the driver with the knowledge to be courteous, to show good sportsmanship, and to be a safe driver.

This year there are thirty-two pupils participating in Drivers' Education. Each pupil must be sixteen years of age and must be equipped with a driver's permit.

In October a state highway patrolman, Mr. Green, showed us some slides of wrecks and answered what questions we had concerning driving.

On Monday we have lectures given to us by Mr. Dilley. The class is divided into groups of four and the remainder of the week each group is taken in the car to practice driving.

Our Drivers' Training car is a 1949 Plymouth.

BAND

DRUM MAJORETTES

The Philo High School Band this year is once again under the direction of Wade B. Fair. Mr. Fair is a graduate of Northwestern University with Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees. The band consists of 82 members.

The band participated in all the home football games and several away ones. We also participated several other activities.

This year we have a Student Band Senate composed of one boy and girl from each room. Students that are in this are: David Sawyers, Jo Ann Rittberger, Lynn Boetcher, Donna Mae Benedict, Jim Longshore, Connie Sherburn, Harold Gordon, and Tamera Summers. The purpose of this group is that if any member of the band has any new ideas he puts it into a suggestion box and this is brought before the group at one of their meetings.

The band has been trying to raise money this year so they can buy new uniforms.

The newly elected officers of our band are:

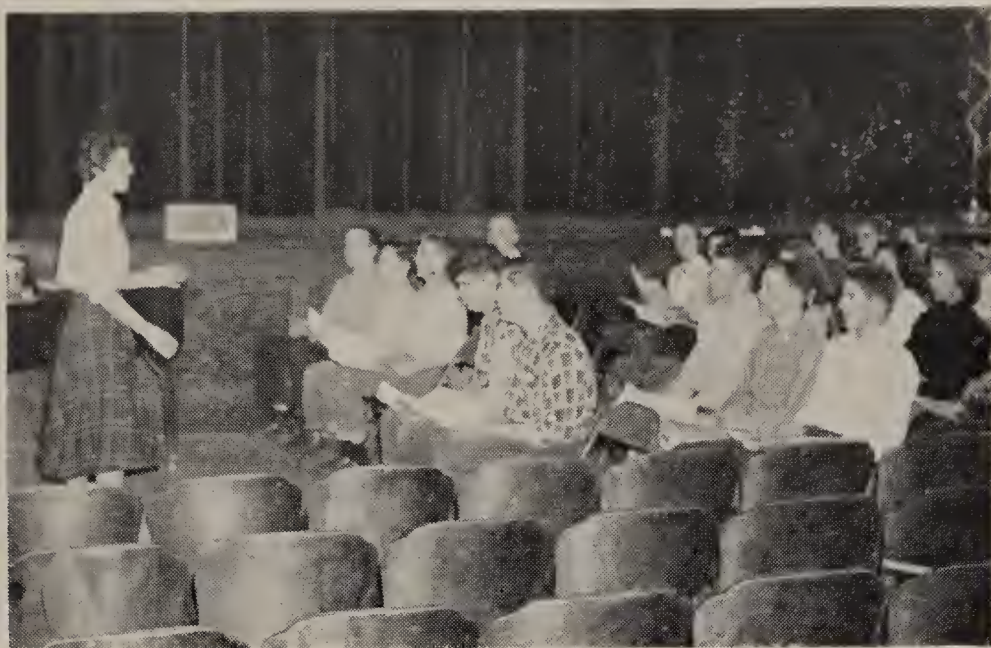

President	Philip Dalton
Vice President	Dick Swetnam
Secretary	Connie Sherburn
Treasurer	Chuck Baker
Librarian	Sandra Pierce

Several soloists and ensembles are preparing to enter the District Music Contest this spring and most of them hope to go on to state.

At the concert this spring the band will be giving their last performance with the following seniors: Pat Clever, Jean Collins, Chuck Baker, Clara Ann Barbour, Marjorie Enochs, Nancy Finkel, Nancy Linscott, Martha Miller, Jo Ann Rittberger, Richard Robinson, Jean Kramer, David Sawyers, Martha Sherburn, Shirley Wietzel, and Nancy Wilson.

STUDENT COUNCIL

SEATED: Humphrey, Foster, Swetnam, Mautz
STANDING: Perkins, Elkington, Deitrick, Cassady, Rittberger, Thompson

Some of the activities planned by the student council were as follows: We decided to have hall monitors to keep halls cleared and in order. We also elected football and basketball cheerleaders. Our biggest event was the football Homecoming. We also chose movies for the following year.

The members of the student council would like to thank Mr. Thompson for the superior guidance he gave us.

—Dick Swetnam

SEATED: Miller, Baker, Pyatt, Sheppard
STANDING: Hunsicker, Taylor, Myers, Bronkar, Mr. Meyer

At the beginning of the school year we elected two representatives from the freshman homerooms to the senior homerooms. Mr. Myer was the teacher sponsor.

In October, Joan Sheppard and Bill Bronkar represented the school and went to Delaware, Ohio to spend a day at the Red Cross Camp. There were students there representing every school in Ohio. There were some orphans from Korea and Greece. Those students told what it was like when they received the Red Cross boxes from our school and every other school in the United States.

We filled Red Cross boxes for children overseas and sent birthday gifts to the Children's Home.

The officers selected for the Junior Red Cross Council are as follows:

President Bill Bronkar
Vice President Mary Lou Hunsicker
Secretary and Treasurer.... Charles Myers

—Joan Kay Sheppard

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

SEATED: Barbour, Stiles, Watkins, Benedict, Smith, Brannon

STANDING: Sheppard, Jones, Harris, L. Smith, Fisher, Morgan, Allison, Drake, Bishop, Miss Powelson

Our library is under the supervision of Miss Powelson. She assists all students in finding reference books and literature on different topics.

The library consists of over four-thousand volumes of reference, fiction, and non-fiction books besides a good selection of magazines. Each year the school receives a number of Reading Circle Books. This year many wornout books have been replaced and thirty-six Landmark books have been added.

Miss Powelson is assisted in this wonderful work by eighteen student librarians who check the books in and out, keep them in order and do various other duties.

On January 31 the librarians had their annual party in the form of a potluck dinner at six followed by games, stunts, and dancing. It was attended by the present librarians, their guests, and past librarians.

Jacquie Watkins

STUDENT SECRETARIES

Twelve Senior girls who are preparing for secretarial work comprise this class for secretarial work. In it they learn all the duties performed in office work such as filing, operation of the different machines found in an office, typing stencils, letters, business forms, and other essential papers. This course is the last step before actual practice. Miss Evangeline Politis instructs the girls in the different duties.

 THIRD ROW: Hamilton, Swetnam, Elliot, Dilley, Dalton, Morgan, Hunter, Sawyers, Smith, Sharp

The active Sophomore Latin Club is composed of eleven members. The Honorary members are the Juniors and the Seniors, who have completed two years of latin, we are members of the J. C. L. (Junior Classical League) and also members of the State J. C. L. Association from which we receive material for our programs, which we have every month.

Active members attend the State J. C. L. convention in Columbus every spring.

Five members attended the National J. C. L. convention at Oxford, Ohio for three days last June.

We hope to attend the National J. C. L. convention this year at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Mrs. Sharp sponsors the club for our school.

LATIN BANQUET

VALENTINES DANCE

The Senior Class held its first St. Valentine Day Dance Saturday, February 9 at the Duncan Falls gymnasium.

The Tempo Kings provided the music. The dance was well attended and enjoyed by all.

INITIATION

Initiation is an event awaited by both Seniors and Freshmen. Initiation started September 17 and ended the night of the 19th with the initiation party. The party was well attended by Seniors, Freshmen, and Faculty. Having been properly introduced to high school life the Freshmen are now ready to complete their education.

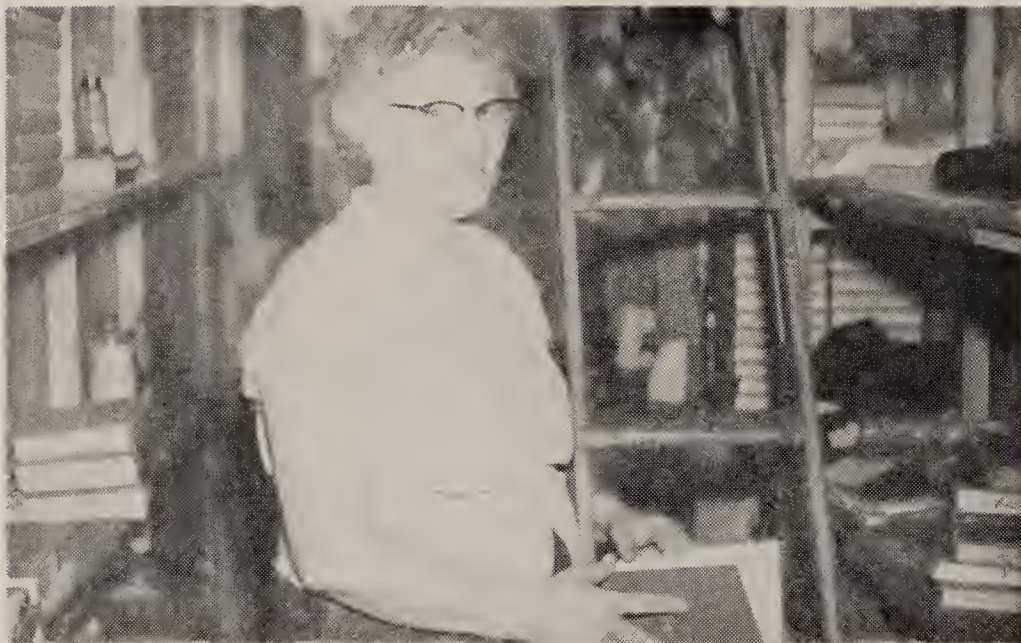

COOKS: Harris, Fulwider, Showers.

COOKS

Mrs. Norma Showers and Mrs. Mabel Harris are the cooks who prepare and serve the hot lunches, soup and milk that everyone enjoys.

The girls from the Home Economics classes, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Milligan, help with the serving and the clearing of the tables.

Evelyn Price

Grace Courtney.

GRACE COURTNEY

A familiar face around Philo is that of Grace Courtney. She takes care of the lockers, books sells pencils and tablets, and assists the students in getting on their buses. She also helps the cooks in the cafeteria.

Evelyn Price

JANITORS: Taylor, Nott, DeGarmo, Swingle.

JANITORS

Dwight Taylor, Lee Nott, and Johnny DeGarmo, under the supervision of Raymond Swingle, are the very capable janitors.

They take care of the heating system and the building and attend to the school at night if any special activity is going on.
